

Funding Overview

---

1. Introduction

The Chow Foundation is a Papua New Guinea-based non-profit dedicated to empowering communities through targeted initiatives in education, health, and sports. We are driven by the belief that sustainable, community-led change begins with opportunity and empowerment.

2. Our Focus Areas

Program Area	Description	Example Initiatives
Education	Supporting access to learning for all ages	Early childhood literacy, mobile libraries, school supply drives
Health	Promoting community wellness	Mobile clinics, nutrition workshops, health awareness campaigns
Sports	Empowering youth through sports	Community leagues, sports scholarships, facility upgrades

3. Why We Need Support

To scale our programs, maintain quality service delivery, and reach underserved communities, we rely on contributions from generous partners. Your support helps us provide resources, mobilize staff, train volunteers, and build sustainable community systems for the sustainability of the projects.

4. How Funds Are Used

Funds are used according to the different initiatives that are ongoing by the Chow Foundation. All proceeds go back towards the Chow Foundation and its projects. Generally, the following shows the distribution of funds across projects:

Use of Funds	Percentage
Program Delivery	60%
Capacity Building	20%
Monitoring & Evaluation	5%
Administrative Costs	5%
Contingency Reserve	5%
Outreach & Advocacy	5%

5. Funding Options

- General Fund: Supports overall operations and flexibility to meet urgent needs.
- Initiative-Specific Giving: Donors may choose to fund specific programs aligned with their interests.
- Recurring Donations: Monthly/annual partnerships help sustain our work.
- One-time Contributions: Ideal for immediate or short-term needs.

6. Impact Reporting

We provide regular updates, financial transparency, and impact reports to all our supporters. Donors are also invited to site visits and community events to see their contributions in action.
